

Things to Know about Your KCLS Library

- For your convenience, many KCLS libraries are open 7 days a week.
- The Renton Downtown Library will add Sunday hours, 1-5pm, beginning March 7 (except April 4 for IT installations).
- Printing from library computers is free up to 75 pages per week.
- You can place holds on up to 25 items and check out up to 100 items.
- Community meeting rooms are available at many KCLS libraries. You can reserve them for nonprofit events or meetings.
- You are also eligible for a Seattle Public Library card. For more information visit www.kcls.org/usingthelibrary/librarycards/borrowing\_areas.cfm or inquire in the library.

Loan Periods

Books, audiocassettes, CDs, CD-ROMs, eAudio:

28 days with two 28-day renewals

eBooks: 21 days; with two 21-day renewals

Magazines, videos, DVDs: 7 days, with two 7-day renewals

Late Fees

Fines for overdue materials are 10 cents per day with a maximum fine of $3 per item.

kcls.org